

Swaine & Moore in 1968, was elected partner in 1975 and is presently head of the Corporate Law Department.

Despite a challenging career and a rigorous workload, Tom has always managed to find time to give service to the community of Ridgewood and other causes.

Tom is in his third year as president of the Ridgewood Public Education Foundation, with the mission of broadening our children's education experience and helping our school system deliver a world-class competitive education. He has helped establish a successful partnership with the Paterson Education Foundation and a number of districts have looked to Ridgewood as a prototype.

In November 1994, Tom became president of the New York Legal Aid Society Board of Directors, an agency with which he has served since law school. As president, Tom had the task of negotiating contracts and restructuring Legal Aid's staff following an attorneys' strike and New York City's termination of Legal Aid contracts.

He is also co-chair of Weinfeld Associates, a fund-raising arm of NYU Law School, a former president and trustee of the Ridgewood Board of Education, and a former vestryman and warden at St. Elizabeth's Church in Ridgewood.

Tom and I go way back—back further than either of us would care to admit. He was my student at George Washington Junior High School in Ridgewood. From those days a long time ago, I could see Tom was destined for great things. He was sharp, disciplined, handled himself very well, displayed great character and his classmates turned to him for answers. In short, he was a leader among leaders even then.

It is Tom's propensity for hard work, his facile mind and his wonderful ability to deal with people that have allowed him to balance a truly Herculean schedule. Everything he does, he does with full effort and with grace and sensitivity. Perhaps it is the dignity with which Tom treats every individual that truly inspires people to do their best. Ridgewood is truly blessed to have Tom as a resident and I am truly blessed to be able to call him my friend.

CONGRATULATING MICHAEL
KENNY, FLORIDA VOICE OF DEMOCRACY WINNER

HON. MICHAEL BILIRAKIS

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Mr. BILIRAKIS. Mr. Speaker, each year the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its ladies auxiliary conduct the Voice of Democracy Broadcast Scriptwriting Contest. This year, more than 116,000 secondary school students participated in the contest, competing for the 54 national scholarships totaling more than $118,000. The contest theme for this year was "Answering America's Call."

I am proud to announce that one of my constituents, Michael Kenny, won first place in the state and a $1,000 scholarship in the Voice of Democracy Contest. Michael is a senior at Tarpon Springs High School and hopes to pursue a career in theater.

In his speech, Michael reminds us all of what can be accomplished when we answer

America's call and undertake individual acts to improve the world around us. I would like to share Michael's speech with you.

ANSWERING AMERICA'S CALL

(By Michael Kenny)

Around the first of December 1995, due to the efforts of people in Helena, Montana banding together to protect and care for certain ailing and threatened birds, the American Bald Eagle was taken off the endangered species list.

Murder, poverty, homelessness, hunger, discriminationwhen we watch the evening news, or read the paper, we seldom see good news like the story about the Bald Eagle. We are often disgusted and shocked at what transpires in the world around us. Many are pointing out our problems without offering any solutions. They see America's flaws and say we are a society destined to failure. America is endangered, but her critics are not listening. They do not hear the soft voice of America as she whispers. America is calling out to us. She asks for our love and respect for her and for her precious needy citizens. She is the voice of the twenty million children living in poverty and the 12 million children hoping for a hot meal so they won't go to bed hungryagain"help us," America calls, "help them", "help each other."

Let's not waste time criticizing, let's answer. Let's work together and repair what is wrong with this country. She asks us to come together, to stand united in our communities and help those who need food, clothing and shelter. As a letter to the editor in my local newspaper recently put it, "The truth is that no sense of community can survive unless we the people demand political respect and economic support for the values of human dignity." A while back, I was like the many who just complained and put America down. I was angry at the world around me for all of its problems because I felt helpless to make right what was wrong. I am only one person, I thought, what can I do? Recently, desiring to at least do something, I went down to a local soup kitchen to offer some help. I noticed there a young girl in what appeared to have once been a pink dress, but was now only soiled rags. She was cold and clutched tightly an old doll with the stuffing coming out and she was desperately trying to keep warm. My heart sank as she timidly approached the counter. I wanted so much to help her. As I handed her a cup of chicken soup and saw the smile cross that dirt-stained little face as she took her first sip, I knew I had begun to answer her call. She received the nourishment she needed to get through the day. We helped make her life, and others, a little easier, at least for the moment. I realized then that I could make a difference. Finally, I was beginning to hear and answer the call of America.

Our country also calls out for us to be proud. We live in a nation where men and women have traditionally joined in a fight for freedom. So many lives were lost to gain what this country stands for; justice, liberty and community. When you hear the national anthem at a ball game, riserise as America calls you to your feet, and when you place your right hand over your heart, be proud of your country. When we answer America's call, we will have come together as a community; white, black, native America, Asian, Hispanic and have erased prejudice and racism. We will have helped our fellow human beings and hopefully, defeated hate and violence. And America will finally hear the praise she so desperately deserves.

So let's listen to our country because all our criticism is drowning out her voice. But she still calls for us to go out and do something. No, You or I alone can't change a whole country, but when people in our community see what we are doing, it will inspire them to do the same, and will create a chain from one community to the next until all of America is answering the call. And then, who knows, maybe this country, like its national symbol, the Bald Eagle, will no longer be endangered.

TRIBUTE TO GIRL SCOUT GOLD AWARD RECIPIENT

HON. DAVID R. OBEY

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, April 16, 1996

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Speaker, today, I would like to salute an outstanding young woman, Laura Hahn, who has been honored with the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. Gold Award by the Indian Waters Girl Scout Council in Eau Claire, WI.

She is being honored for earning the highest achievement award in Girl Scouting. The Girl Scout Gold Award symbolizes outstanding accomplishments in the areas of leadership, community service, career planning and personal development.

Girl Scouts of the U.S.A., an organization serving over 2.6 million girls, has awarded more than 20,000 Girl Scout Gold Awards to Senior Girl Scouts since the inception of the program in 1980. To receive the award, a Girl Scout must fulfill five requirements: earn four interest project patches, earn the Career Exploration pin, earn the Senior Girl Scout Leadership Award project, earn the Senior Girl Scout Challenge, and design and implement a Girl Scout Gold Award project. A plan for fulfilling the requirements of the award is created by the Senior Girl Scout and is carried out through close cooperation between the girl and an adult Girl Scout volunteer.

For the Girl Scout Gold Award project, Laura developed a plan to prepare and distribute holiday meals to people who could not leave their homes. Laura worked to secure the funding for the meals and organized volunteers to help prepare and deliver the meals. Through her project, Laura was able to bring together different groups to address the needs of individuals in her community.

The earning of the Girl Scout Gold Award is a major accomplishment for Laura Hahn and I believe she should receive the public recognition due her for this significant service to her community and her country.
